

Our submitted paper will consist of following parts:

1. Scoring sheet (see attached): Please attach the scoring sheet to the first page of your paper.
2. Title Page: English title, Authors, Abstract (about 200 words), Keywords (3-5 words/phrases)
3. Main Body (Please refer to our slides for guidance on how to structure and organize your final paper.)
4. References: Please list all works cited in your paper (according to the APA 6th style for English references, according to style in 《外语教学与研究》 for Chinese references). This term paper will contain at least fifteen references to research articles, book chapters or monographs. Use only scholarly sources. Unpublished theses or manuscripts are fine.
5. Appendix: Present a list of your experiment stimuli or other necessary supplementary materials.

Other instructions:

Language: Make sure your use appropriate academic English. Check psycholinguistic papers in English to get a feeling for the style, the format and the organization of your paper.

Length and format: About 1500 words for each group member. Remember to tag which part is yours! Please use 2.5-cm margins to all sides, Times New Roman size 12, 1.5 spaced. Insert page numbers (excluding the title page) on the bottom-right corner.

Due date: January 6, 2025

A note on plagiarism: Please do not copy, quote or paraphrase other people's words/sentences directly without citing them appropriately. Otherwise or if detected, you will get no grades for this term paper.